He may live without books—what is knowledge
but grieving?
He may live without hope—what is hope
but deceiving?
He may live without love—what is passion
but pining?
But where is the man that can live without dining?

THE STRATFORD
FEBRUARY 16TH, 1898

"Let us be patient! These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise,
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise."

No North, no South, no East, no West—
But the Church of our Country.

"He watch'd and wept, he pray'd
And felt for all."

RT. REV. DOCTOR MAHLON N. GILBERT,
BISHOP COADJUTOR OF MINNESOTA.

Church Club of New York.

"May all your virtues with your years improve,
Till in consummate worth you shine
the pride
Of these our days, and succeeding times
A bright example."

JOHN H. COLE, ESQ.

The Clergy as Laymen See Them.

"O wad some power the giftie gie us
To see oursel's as ithers see us!"

"Hear how he clears the points o' faith
Wi' rattlin' an' thumpin'!
Now meekly calm, now wild in wrath,
He's stampin' an' he's jumpin'!"

"I venerate the man whose heart is warm,
Whose hands are pure, whose doctrine
and whose life,
Coincident, exhibit lucid proof
That he is honest in the sacred cause."

GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER, ESQ.

The Church and the People.

Church.
"What is a church? Let Truth and Reason speak
They would reply, the faithful, pure and meek,
From Christian folds, the one selected race
Of all professions, and in every place"

People.
"Constant at Church and change his gains were sure!
His givings rare save farthings to the poor."

REV. CHARLES S. OLMSTED, D.D.

The Spirit of the Occasion.

"I know thou'rt full of love and honesty
And weigh'st thy words before thou
Givest them breath."

Hymn 516

Onward, Christian soldiers,
 Marching as to war,
 With the cross of Jesus
 Going on before!
 Christ the royal Master
 Leads against the foe;
 Forward into battle,
 See, His banners go.
 Onward, Christian soldiers,
 Marching as to war,
 With the cross of Jesus
 Going on before!

At the sign of triumph
 Satan's host doth flee;
 On, then, Christian soldiers,
 On to victory!
 Hell's foundations quiver
 At the shout of praise;
 Brothers, lift your voices,
 Loud your anthems raise!
 Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
 Join our happy throng!
 Blend with ours your voices
 In the triumph song!
 Glory, laud, and honor,
 Unto Christ the King;
 This through countless ages
 Men and angels sing.
 Onward, etc.

Like a mighty army
 Moves the Church of God;
 Brothers, we are treading
 Where the saints have trod;
 We are not divided,
 All one Body we,
 One in hope and doctrine,
 One in charity.
 Onward, etc.

Crowns and thrones may perish,
 Kingdoms rise and wane,
 But the Church of Jesus
 Constant will remain,
 Gates of hell can never
 'Gainst that Church prevail;
 We have Christ's own promise,
 And that cannot fail.
 Onward, etc.

Hymn 261

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
 Does his successive journeys run;
 His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
 Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
 To Him shall endless prayer be made,
 And praises throng to crown His head;
 His Name like sweet perfume shall rise
 With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue
 Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
 And infant voices shall proclaim
 Their early blessings on His Name.

Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
 The prisoner leaps to burst his chains,
 The weary find eternal rest,
 And all the sons of want are blest.

Let every creature rise and bring
 Peculiar honors to our King;
 Angels descend with songs again,
 And earth repeat the loud Amen.
